

Ana García del Molino, PhD

During my Ph.D. I worked on visual understanding and personalization for an optimal recollection experience. My research interests also include video content analysis and generative models for image transformation.

Professional Experience

📍 BIGO Tech., Singapore
📅 April 2019-Today
🕒 Sr. AI Algorithm Engineer

Parametric predictions for graphic 3D modeling.
Use of generative models (autoencoders, U-Nets, etc) for image refinement and attribute transfer.

📍 gifs.com, Zurich
📅 Summer 2017
🕒 Research Consultant

📄 Use of a deep ranking model with personalizable input to customize the highlight detection in videos.

📍 I2R, A*STAR, Singapore
📅 2014-March 2019

🕒 Ph.D. Candidate
👤 Supervised by Joo-Hwee Lim

- 📄 Modeling of lifelog photo-stream sequences using LSTM networks, to detect daily activities and learn associations between life events.
- 📄 Use of conditional random fields and probabilistic inference for interactive video summarization with diversity and query-driven objectives.
- 📄 Use of image quality analysis and semantic retrieval techniques for query-based lifelog summarization.

📍 National Inst. of Informatics, Tokyo
📅 2013
🕒 Research Intern

Extension of the Bag of Words instance search technique by geometric coding and quantization error compensation.

Education and Skills

PhD. in Cognitive Systems and Visual Computing

📍 School of Computer Science and Engineering
📅 2015-2019

BSc. and MSc. in Telecomm Engineering

📍 TelecommBCN (ETSETB)
📅 2008-2013

🇪🇸 Native Speaker
🇪🇸 Native Speaker
🇬🇧 Fluent
🇫🇷 Fluent
🇩🇪 Beginner

💻 Proficient in Matlab, Python, TensorFlow, OpenCV. Prior experience with Caffe, C++, SQL, HTML, CSS.

I enjoy sailing, the cinema and the opera, playing board games... And I make earrings!

Make the most of your hobbies! I was a sailing instructor in Barcelona the summers of '08 to '12.

Causes that matter. I am part of the leadership of the LeanIn Circle "AI Singapore".

Commitment to the community. During my undergrad, I was part of several student associations: Vice-President of the IEEE Barcelona Student Branch in 2011-2013; Member of the School's Evaluation Committee and Board; intern at the International Student Office.

Honors and Awards

Obra Social "La Caixa" 📅 2014

Private fellowship to support postgraduate studies in North America and Asia-Pacific.

SINGA Scholarship 📅 2015

Award given by A*STAR to international students to pursue their PhD at a Singapore University.
